CATHOLIC SERVICE APPEAL: Bishop Joseph Latino has asked for everyone to give a gift of sincere prayer or monetary support or both to the 2007 Catholic Service Appeal. Our prayers and pledges help educate our seminarians, care for our retired priests, support parish programs involving adult religious education, RCIA, outreach to inactive Catholics, ministries to youth and radio evangelization. The Appeal also continues to support our specialized diocesan-wide adult ministry and leadership formation programs and workshops that prepare the laity to take on major roles in parishes made necessary by the priest shortage. In addition, the Appeal helps Catholic Charities in its mission to help heal deep and widespread social ills in all corners of our diocese. We can all help all these causes by giving our sincere prayers and contributions to the Catholic Service Appeal on May 6.
